

A R
O
H
A

Be kind and fair to everyone

A R
O
H
A

Work together! Support one and other to be the best that we can be

A R O H A

Understand others. Be inclusive and learn from one another

A R R O H A

Have the courage to act and speak with honesty

Do 'small things with great love'
around your local area

STEWARDSHIP

Take action! Make a positive difference

Be a kaitiaki of others and our world

Enjoy and explore our beautiful word

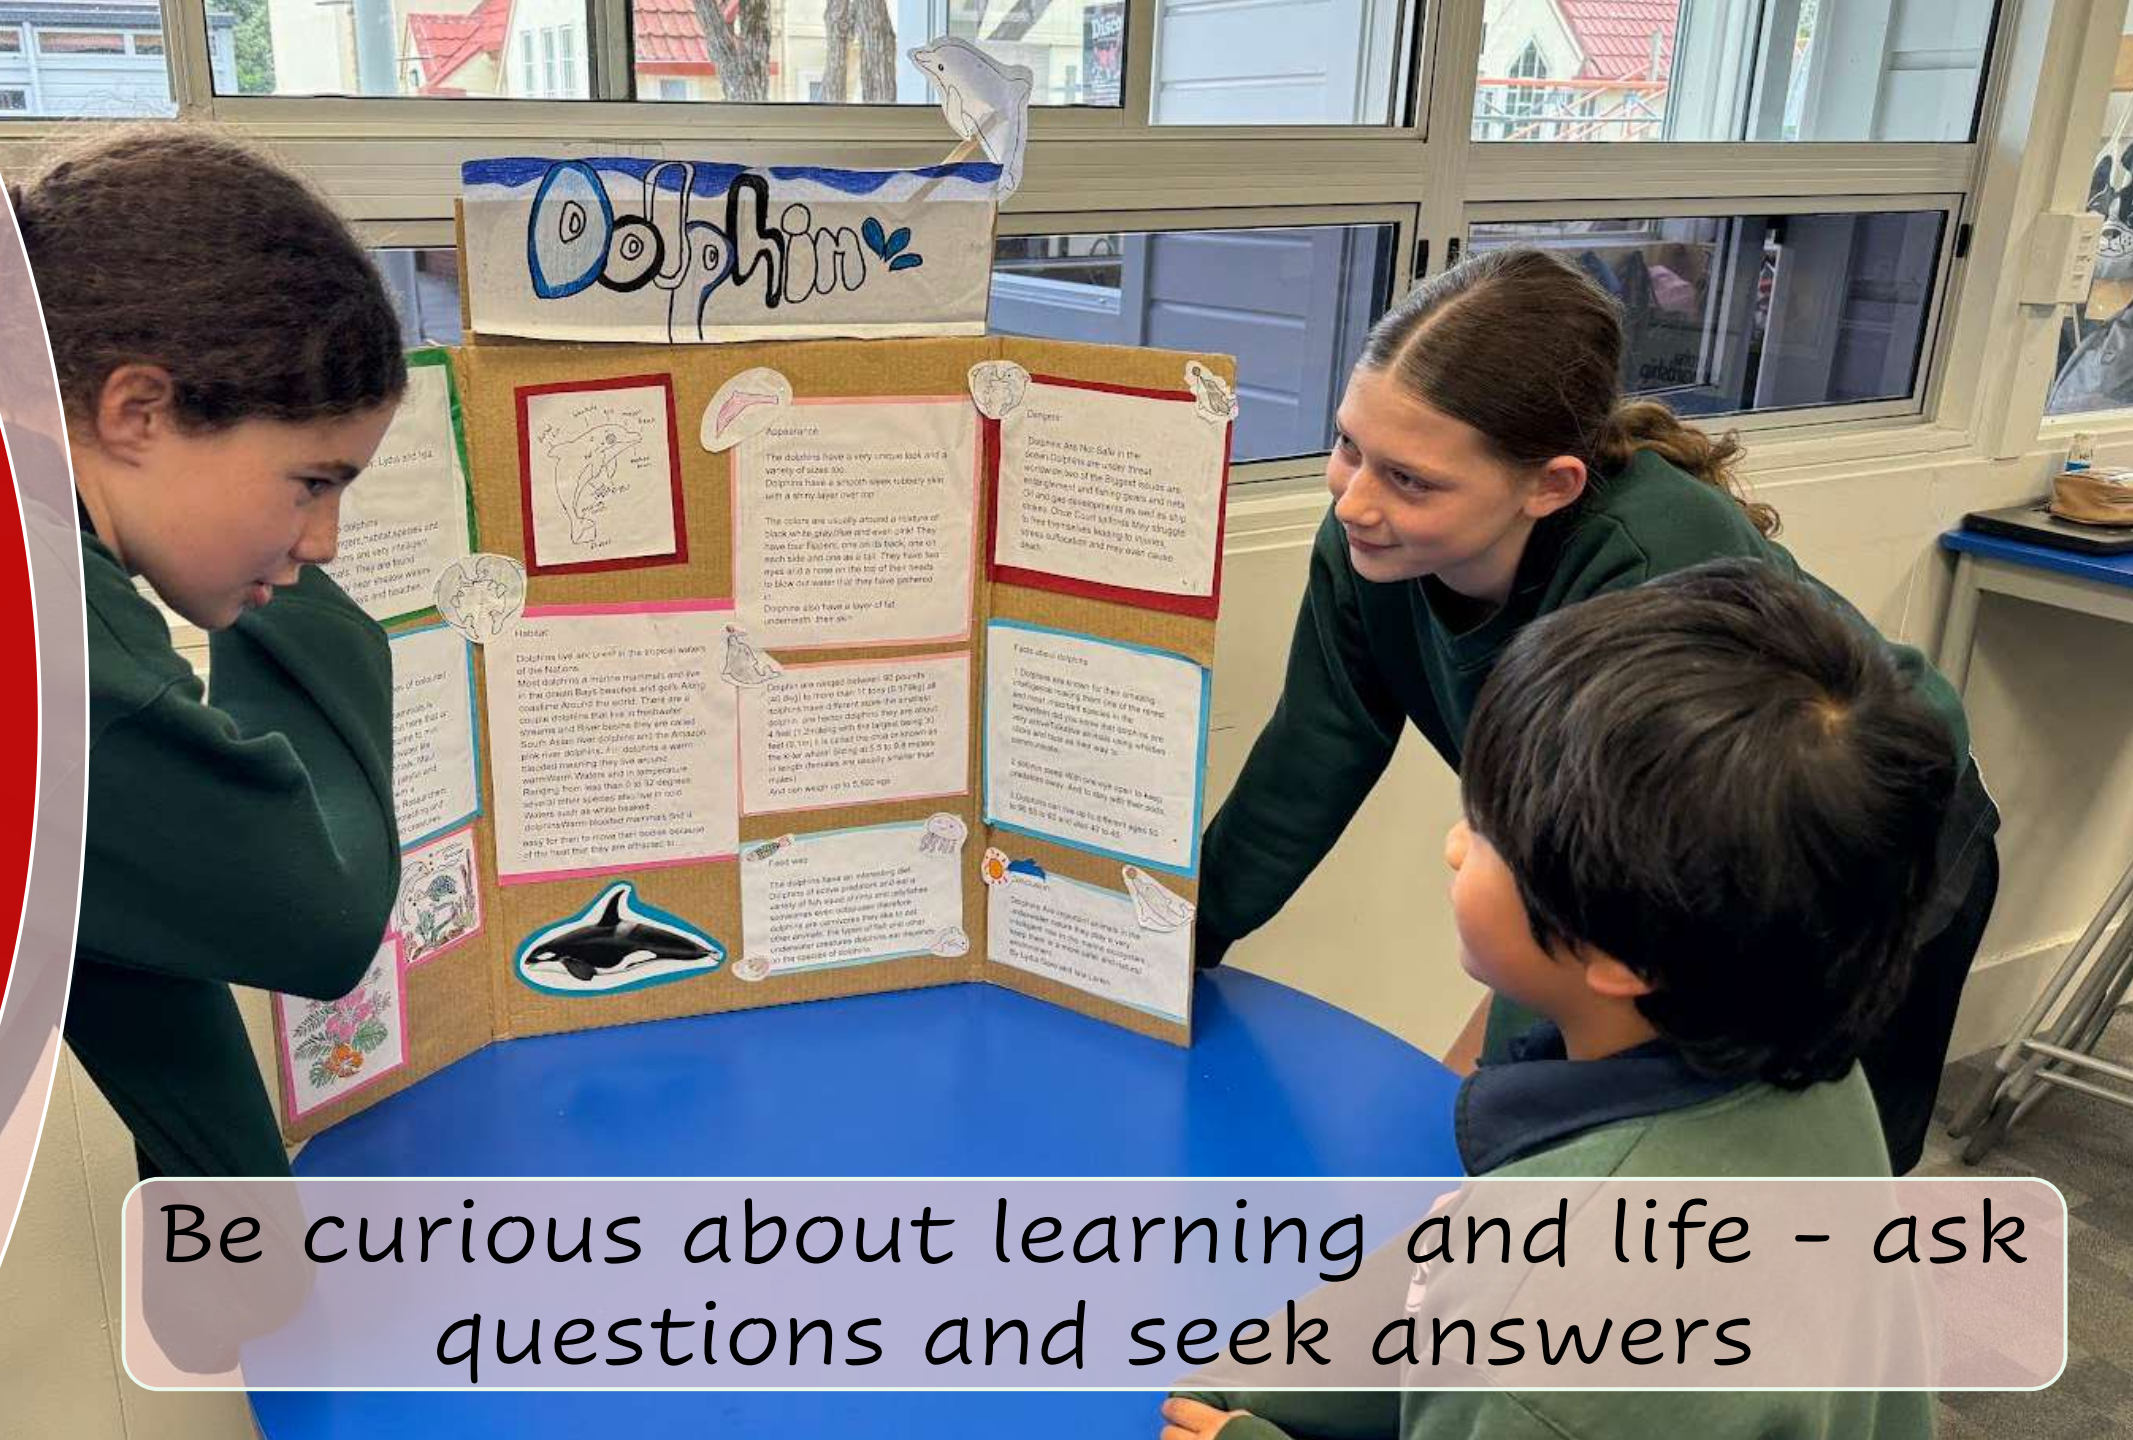

Joy

Be adventurous and try new things constantly

Dolphin

Appearance

The dolphins have a very smooth look and a variety of sizes too. Dolphins have a smooth sleek tubular skin with a waxy layer on top.

The colors are usually around a mixture of black on the grey/blue and white. They have four flippers, one on each side and one on top. They have two eyes and a nose on the top of their heads to blow air into the water that they have breathed in.

Dolphins also have a layer of fat underneath their skin.

Habitat

Dolphins live in the tropical waters of the Nations.

Most dolphins are marine mammals and live in the ocean. Some live in rivers and bays. Along the coast of Africa, the word 'Dolphin' is used to describe the bottlenose dolphin. They are called South Asian River Dolphins and the Amazon pink river dolphin. All dolphins are warm blooded mammals. All dolphins are warm blooded meaning they live in warm waters. Warm and in temperate waters. Warm blooded means that they can live in cold water. Warm blooded means that they can live in cold water. Warm blooded means that they can live in cold water.

Food

The dolphins have an interesting diet. Dolphins eat a variety of fish and squid. They are also known to eat crabs and shrimp. They are also known to eat squid and fish. They are also known to eat squid and fish. They are also known to eat squid and fish.

Dangers

Dolphins are not safe in the ocean. They are a very fragile creature and are easily threatened. They are also known to be killed by fishing nets and traps. They are also known to be killed by fishing nets and traps. They are also known to be killed by fishing nets and traps.

Fun facts about dolphins

1. Dolphins are known for their amazing intelligence. They are also known for their ability to communicate with each other. They are also known for their ability to communicate with each other.

2. Dolphins are known for their ability to jump out of the water. They are also known for their ability to communicate with each other. They are also known for their ability to communicate with each other.

3. Dolphins are known for their ability to live in groups. They are also known for their ability to communicate with each other. They are also known for their ability to communicate with each other.

Conclusion

Dolphins are a very interesting and intelligent creature. They are also known for their ability to communicate with each other. They are also known for their ability to communicate with each other.

Be curious about learning and life - ask questions and seek answers

joy

Laugh a little! Be able to laugh at yourself

3
0
y

Stick to it! Learn to keep going even if it's hard and have fun figuring it out

F
A I T
H

Recognise God's love for us in those we meet every day

F A I T
H

Try to recognise and do the right thing

F A I T H

Be Jesus to others even when they make it hard

F A I T H

Choose to serve others in little things
even when no one will notice